Activities Among Memphis Negroes

BY REV. T. O. FULLER.

The third anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. M. T. Cooper at St. James A. M. E. church was celebrated with appropriate exercises at St. Paul Baptist church Monday night. The services were held at St. Paul because St. James is rebuilding, and their church is torn down. A large crowd attended the services and many complimentary speeches were made. Dr. Cooper is the oldest Methodist pastor in this field.

The Baptist ministers of the city and other workers leave for Clarksville, Tenn., Tuesday to attend the state convention. Nearly every church will be represented.

The marriage of Musette Neal, daughter of Prof. C. J. Neal of the city schools, and Dr. James E. Bell, of Baltimore, is announced for Wednesday, Oct. 20, at the family residence on South Cynthia place.

Charles Brown, wealthy negro of West Columbia, Tex., has died, leaving an estate said to be worth $2,000,000. He owned valuable oil lands.

The school football season is now on. Howe, LeMay, Kortsch and the University of West Tennessee Medical college will get into the game at a lively clip.

Several new church clubs are being formed at the First Baptist church, St. Paul avenue. An important movement has been started at the church. A big bus car has been purchased to be used for gospel extension and social service. Deceitful members will be brought to the services, and the children of working mothers will be taken to the Sunday school. A group of singers will hold services downtown also.

New Way to Remove Hairs Creates Sensation

(Actually Takes Out the Roots.)

What beauty specialists regard as one of the most important discoveries in recent years is the phenol method of removing superfluous hair. Its great advantage, of course, lies in the fact that it actually removes the hair roots. It does this easily, instantly, harmlessly. Sufferers from the affliction named need no longer despair. The actual hair-roots come out before your very eyes, leaving the skin as smooth and hairless as a baby.

Because it offers such complete relief, a stick of phenol is the most inexpensive thing a woman can buy for the removal of hairy growths. For the same reason druggists are having an enormous demand for it. You can use it with entire safety; it is so harmless one could even eat it without any ill effect.

"I Had Rheumatism, Now I'm Well." Read This Letter.

"Dear Friends and Sufferers of Rheumatism: I had rheumatism so badly I could not work and had given up all hopes of being well. I saw Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy advertised and several of my friends asked me to try it. After using other rheumatic medicines with no good results, I decided to try Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy. Today I am a well man and I advise all suffering with rheumatism to give Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy a trial. Joe Blanton, Shannon, Miss." Kirk's Remedy is recommended in the treatment of acute or chronic rheumatism, painful or aching joints, neuralgia, lumbago and chronic headaches. It sells for a dollar. If you will buy a bottle and take it according to directions you will be relieved. If you are not relieved take the empty bottle to the dealer and he is authorized to give you back your dollar. This same guarantee applies to Kirk's Vigorone, a fine tonic, Kirk's Cough Syrup, Kirk's Chili Tonic, Kirk's Sarsaparilla, Blood Purifier and Kirk's Liniment, made by Kirk's Chemical Co., Memphis, Tenn. Sold by druggists everywhere. adv.

King Is In Stupor From Monkey Bite

ATHENS, Oct. 19.—The condition of King Alexander, who is critically ill as a result of infection caused by the bite of a pet monkey, was unchanged early today, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians.

His drowsiness persists, the bulletin said. Newspapers here speculate on his successor should his illness terminate fatally. A number of foreign princes are suggested for the throne. It appears that Prince Charles of Belgium, younger son of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth, is the favorite.

Opposition journals point out that the natural heir to the throne under the constitution would be Prince Paul, brother of King Alexander and third son of former King Constantine. Gustave Adolph, the crown prince of Sweden, arrived in Athens tonight. He is observing the strictest incognito.

MARRIAGES

NEWBURN, Tenn.—Henry Platt, 78, and Mrs. Callie Dumas, 55, of Tip-topville, Tenn., were quietly married at the home of Tom Miller in the presence of a large number of relatives. Squire Frank Neely officiated. Mr. Platt is a resident of Chester county, and has resided in that section for many years. They will reside at Paris, Tenn.

NEWBURN, Tenn.—Walter D. Hollister and Mrs. Male Gibbons, both well-known people of this city, were secretly married here.

AMUSEMENTS

Loew's State.

There are laughs galore in the current offering at Loew's New State theater, while lovers of the melodrama can not help but enjoy and thrill at the adventures portrayed in the feature film, "The Hope," the screen version of the Drury Lane melodrama. Olive and Mack are the fundaments of the first half week's bill. Everyone has stopped at a hotel and all have wondered at the many duties of the "hotel clerk." Olive and Mack have built an act around the trials and tribulations of the hotel clerk. The Melody Girls head the bill with an attractive repertoire of songs. The remainder of the program is up to the high standard of Loew offerings, and continue to please capacity houses at the beautiful new theater.

Orpheum.

If you like dancing the Orpheum bill will please. It pleased, or rather it held the attention of that crowd of first nighters Monday. The flippers ceased their chit-chat long enough to pay respect by watching the five dance turns. Out front in the electric the De Wolf girls are billed as top-drawers. In truth there is no headliner, for every act comes in for a share of applause.

Two artists are the De Wolf girls. Not only are they artistic in dance endeavor but truly they are classical in looks. The didactic doctor who sits on the front row every Monday night declares that never has he seen better setting for silk hose. Repertoire runs the gamut from the fascinating, tantalizing dance of the Eastern harlot to the modern jazz. In all the De Wolf girls admirably prove they are a pair of captivating twinkletoes. Scenic investiture and costumes are lavish.

Another act that will cause the P. A. to polish up that choice word "repertoire" is that of Guy and Pearl Blanche.

ley. No intro is needed in outlining what the Magleys do in way of dancing. One is reminded of the Texas Tommy, famous years ago, when they add the whirlwind touch to a series of numbers that range from classic to cabaret. Too bad indeed that the closing spot is theirs, but the Magleys held them last night.

One well can be proud of the solid South when it comes to gaze on the Southern sisters, with Ed Janis and company. Too, Carmen Booker, winsome miss who has the lead in this bit, is there more ways than one. Janis has educated feet and with such a supporting cast for his revue one can not be too complimentary in notices. Ben Macomber is at the piano.

Harp and cello artists who are remembered from former visits are Lyons and Yocco. As pleasing as ever, these Italian street musicians and singers. Sure fire acts that come with the blackface turn of Fenton and Fields put that pair across. Jack Benny was billed, but Benny and Allen subbed. Perchance Benny was missed, but it wasn't the fault of Jenks and Allen, for they step along with the rest of the bill.

Herbert and Dare have an athletic act that is different. The newly married Joe Columbus says the boys back stage will work next week. Annette Kollerman is booked feature. Yours till then.

AL WILSON.
